

LearnOps Community | Rules of Engagement

Welcome to the LearnOps community of practice. By registering for our community, you agree to the following additional terms:

- You agree not to use the community of practice to poach or sell solutions to other community members. This is a safe place to connect, share, and learn, and we expect all members to respect each other's privacy and not use information or connections gained through the community for commercial purposes.
- You agree to treat all members of the community with respect and professionalism. We do not tolerate any form of harassment, discrimination, or inappropriate behavior in our community, and we reserve the right to remove any member who violates our community standards.
- You acknowledge that the information shared in the community is for educational purposes only and is not intended to constitute legal, financial, or professional advice. You are solely responsible for evaluating the accuracy and usefulness of any information shared in the community and for taking appropriate action based on your own judgment.
- You agree to abide by all applicable laws and regulations, including intellectual property laws, when using the community. You may not post or share any content that violates the rights of any third party or that is illegal, defamatory, or harmful.
- You agree to keep your login information confidential and not to share it with anyone else. You are responsible for any activity that occurs under your account, and we are not liable for any loss or damage arising from unauthorized access to your account.

By registering for our community of practice, you agree to these terms. We reserve the right to modify or update these terms at any time, and we will notify you of any changes by email or through the community platform. If you do not agree to these terms, please do not register for the community.
